Memo. No. 1/14-2019 Co (2)
Dated 23/02/2019

Subject:- Regarding Safety of students from Kashmir and maintaining peace and harmony in the Universities/Colleges.

Kindly refer to the subject cited above.

In the context of reports being received through various media regarding the safety of students from Kashmir studying in various higher educational institutions, the State Government has directed that all Universities and Colleges shall ensure the safety and protection of the students on the campus. No HEI shall permit or condone any incident of violence in any form. There shall be constituted one or more committee (s) by the Head, depending upon strength of students, vastness of premises of the University/College that will provide counseling to students for maintaining harmony and cordial atmosphere in Universities/Colleges. No provocative messages shall be allowed through social media. Further, a nodal officer shall also be appointed who will supervise and monitor the situation and will be in contact with the District Administration. His contact details be shared with the Deputy Commissioner and Superintendent of Police immediately. A watch on the situation must be kept and support and help of law and order machinery at district level be obtained to avoid any untoward incident. All HEIs may also create a 24X7 helpline number for the benefit of students. These instructions may be given adequate publicity.

This may be treated as the MOST URGENT.
