RULES AND REGULATIONS

➤ Playing Conditions:

- Each inning restricted to a maximum of 20 overs.
- Each inning lasting around 90 minutes and 10 minutes official break between the innings.
- First six overs in each inning are called as power play
- One bowler may bowl a maximum of 4 overs
- Every no ball bowled by bowler cost 1 run and his next delivery is designated as free hit

➤ Fielding restrictions:

- No more than five fielders can be on the leg side at any time
- During the power play a maximum of two fielders can be outside the 30-yds circle
- After power play, a maximum of five fielders can be outside the circle
- If a fielding team does not start to bowl their 20th over within 80 minutes, the fielding side is credited an extra 6 runs for every whole over bowled after the 80 minutes mark. The umpire may add more time to this if he believes that the batting team is wasting time.

➤ Tie Break/Tie deciders:

- The tie is broken with a Super Over rule
- Each team nominates three batsmen and one bowler to play super over
- The team which bats second in the match bats first in the super over
- Each side bats one over with their inning over if they lose two wickets before the over is completed.
- The side with the higher score from their super over wins.
- If the super over also ends up in a tie, the team that has scored the most boundaries (4s & 6s) in the 20 overs wins.
- If still it is tie then the count back rule apply to break the tie.

➤ Result:

- To get the result in a match minimum six overs each side are required to bowl.
- In a match if first inning is completed and weather is cloudy and chances of rain, the team batting second has to maintain the higher required run rate than the first team throughout the inning to win the match.
- If the match is washed out then the result will be decided with the help of spin of coin.
- In final both teams will be declared joint winner if the match is washed out.

Note: All the matches will be played according to the BCCI T-20 rules.
